19 PROGRESS REPORTS FROM PORTFOLIO HOLDERS

Councillor Pulk (Leisure and Culture) gave the following updates:

- Carlton play day was very well attended.

- Arnold Carnival was also very well attended and lots of positive feedback was received from the community.
- A consultant is currently working with the Bonnington Theatre with a view to reviewing and strengthening its operations.
- 50 + fortnight will be underway shortly offering a choice of cultural and exercise opportunities for the over 50s.
- The local TA centre will be hosting an open day soon.

Councillor Feeney (Environment) had the following updates:

- Bad weather had caused a number of problems for refuse services recently.
- A large number of weeds have been noticed around the Borough - members are urged to contact Nottinghamshire Highways to report problem areas.

Councillor Clarke commended the opening of South Nottinghamshire College's assessment centre in Arnot Hill House. He was also pleased to note that progress on constructing Arnold Health Centre appeared to be taking positive steps. Officers were also thanked for their work on the new borough warding pattern due to be determined by the Boundary Commission in the autumn
