3 MAYOR'S ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The Mayor thanked Members, Officers, friends and family for their support during her time in office and for their generosity in supporting various charity events in support of the Mayor's Charity, the Pancreatic Cancer Research Fund.

The Mayor spoke fondly of her time in Office and the honour that it had been to serve as the Borough's first citizen for a second term. The Mayor talked of the many events that she and her Consort had enjoyed over the year, from DARE graduations to 100th birthdays, and of the lovely people that they had had the pleasure of meeting.

The Mayor informed Members that around £17,000 had been raised for the Mayor's Charity over the course of the year, which would be presented to her chosen charity once final donations had been received.

The Mayor wished Councillor and Mr McCrossen well in the civic year to come and hoped that Councillor McCrossen would enjoy the role as much as she had.

4 DECLARATION OF INTERESTS.

None received.

5 TO ELECT A MAYOR FOR THE ENSUING YEAR.

It was proposed by Councillor Payne, seconded by Councillor Clarke and
