Key Decision

This is not a Key Decision

Background

1. The purpose of this report is to set out the name suggested for the new development to be provided as part of the residential development proposed at Ernehale Court, Cross Street, Arnold.
2. The Building Control Section has liaised with the developers of the site and it has been suggested that the following name be used:-

York Mews

3. The suggested name has been circulated to the Royal Mail, the emergency services and to the local Ward Councillors. I have received no objections in relation to the proposed name.

Proposal

4. The proposed name is considered appropriate because of the connection with the surrounding location of the site. The suffix chosen for the streets is suitable because of the proposed forms.
5. Due to the former use of the site the relationship of the proposed name, recommended for approval would comply with the Council's Street Naming and Numbering Policy (June 2009).

Alternative Options

6. Casterton Mews

Financial Implications
