2. What is Equality?

2.1 Equality is about valuing a person 'as an equal' and treating people according to their needs and characteristics to achieve an equal or fair outcome – it is not necessarily about treating everyone the same.

2.2 An equal society values human diversity, recognising that diversity brings a range of skills, knowledge, values, styles, perspective, experience and ideas that secure the borough's future as a place where people want to live, work and prosper, and challenges the inequalities that destroy this diversity and divides our society.

2.3 By promoting and embracing equality as an organisation, we are serving our communities and improving the lives of our residents and our staff.

2.4 Equality brings quality for everyone and the creation of a fairer society where everyone can participate and achieve their potential.

2.5 As an organisation we recognise that it is only by meeting people's needs, engaging with our communities, having accessible services and a diverse workforce and respecting diversity that we will achieve equality and reduce inequality.

Appendix 1

Reasonable Adjustments

1. The Equality Act 2010 (“the Act”) requires reasonable adjustments to be provided for people who are “disabled”. Under the Act this means they have a “physical or mental impairment which has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to carry out normal day to day activities”.
2. The duty is to make “reasonable adjustments” if the way that we carry out our functions places a disabled person at a “substantial disadvantage” compared to someone who is not disabled.

Our Legal Duties

3. Anyone providing goods, facilities or services to the public or a section of the public, or carrying out public functions, who find that there are barriers to disabled people in the way they do things must consider making adjustments. If those adjustments are reasonable they must be made.
4. The duty is ‘anticipatory’. This means a service provider cannot wait until a disabled person wants to use the service. They must think in advance about what disabled people with a range of impairments, such as visual, hearing, mobility impairment or a learning disability, might reasonably need.

What are Reasonable Adjustments?

5. Reasonable adjustments are not defined by the Act. There is a Code of Practice which gives guidance as to the kind of adjustments that could be made. Depending on the individual’s needs, these might include, for example:
 - Providing documents or correspondence in larger print, or with a specific colour contrast, which may help people with conditions such as dyslexia
 - Giving someone more time than would usually be allowed to provide further information or comments on their complaint
 - Using the telephone rather than written communication (e.g. for someone with a visual disability)
 - Communicating with a person through their representative or advocate
 - Arranging for a single point of contact at the council’s premises

- Providing access to an 'easyread' version of our decision for those with a learning disability
 - Providing a person who uses British Sign Language (BSL) with a fully qualified interpreter
6. We will raise awareness of reasonable adjustments by:
- Publishing this policy on our website
 - Asking people whether they need any additional help or assistance.
 - Making sure that our staff are aware of their responsibilities.
 - Including a statement in our publications that invites people to contact us if they need us to adapt the way we communicate
7. We consider each request individually and aim to agree any adjustments with individuals to avoid us making incorrect assumptions about needs.

Our response to requests

8. Before making an adjustment, we will take into account the Code of Practice and we need to consider some important factors, including:
- What the disadvantage would be if the adjustments were not made
 - Whether the adjustment will be effective in reducing the disadvantage
 - How practical it is to make it
 - Whether it would disrupt our other activities unreasonably
 - The cost and availability of internal resources, such as staff available, finance and also possible external help
9. Although we will try to agree a reasonable adjustment with a minimum of delay, in some cases we may need to consider the request in more detail for a longer period of time.

Circumstances when the council decides not to meet the request for reasonable adjustments

10. There may be circumstances where we decide not to meet the request as we might, for example, consider the request itself not to be reasonable. This might be because we need to take into account the cost or resource implications of making the adjustment. If providing the adjustment or meeting it would interfere with our ability to meet our legal obligations, we may decide the adjustment is not “reasonable”.

Complaints about failure to provide reasonable adjustments

11. If someone is dissatisfied with our response to their request for reasonable adjustment, or with the reasonable adjustment provided, they can complain to us about this. We will respond in accordance with our Complaints, Compliments and Comments Policy.
