A list of non-designated heritage assets has been published and is frequently reviewed. An updated Conservation Area Character Appraisal and Management Plan has been drafted for Calverton. This work has been paused due to a planning committee decision made contrary to officer recommendation which has now been upheld by the Planning Inspectorate. The implications of this decision need to be assessed and potentially a further planning application considered, before the work may be resumed. A new Conservation Area Character Appraisal and Management Plan has been drafted for Gedling Village and a consultation will soon be undertaken, subject to PH approval.
