Introduction

This appendix updates and supersedes Appendix A of the Gedling Local Development Plan Scoping Report (July 2025).

This is an appendix which summarises the plans, policies and programmes that affect the Gedling Local Development Plan. The plans, policies and programmes are split into five tables representing different geographical areas.

Gedling Borough Council has withdrawn from the Greater Nottingham Strategic Plan and commenced the preparation of the Gedling Local Development Plan which will address both strategic and non-strategic matters. Documents related to the other four local authorities are not included in this updated appendix.

Name	EC Directive on the Conservation of Wild Birds 79/409/EEC (1979)
Author	The Council of European Communities
Source	https://www.legislation.gov.uk/eudr/1979/409/contents https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/HTML/?uri=CELEX:32009L0147&amp;from=EN
Description	The Wild Birds Directive ensures far-reaching protection for all of Europe's wild birds, identifying 194 species and sub-species among them as particularly threatened and in need of special conservation measures. There are a number of components to this scheme: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Member States are required to designate Special Protection Areas (SPAs) for 194 particularly threatened species and all migratory bird species. SPAs are scientifically identified areas critical for the survival of the targeted species, such as wetlands. They are part of the Natura 2000 ecological network set up under the Habitats Directive 92/43/EEC.</li> <li>• A second component bans activities that directly threaten birds, such as the deliberate killing or capture of birds, the destruction of their nests and taking of their eggs, and associated activities such as trading in live or dead birds (with a few exceptions).</li> <li>• A third component establishes rules that limit the number of bird species that can be hunted (82 species and sub-species) and the periods during which they can be hunted. It also defines hunting methods which are permitted (e.g. non-selective hunting is banned).</li> </ul> In 2009, Directive 79/409/EEC 1979 has been amended substantially and Directive 2009 147/EC has been introduced to ensure continued clarity and rationality (see second link above).
Targets	No set targets. To codify amendments to the original directive of 1979 to maintain clarity and rationality of overall vision of original directive.
Implication for GLDP	Policies in the Gedling Local Development Plan should make sure that the upkeep of recognised habitats is maintained and not damaged from development. Avoid pollution or deterioration of other habitats or any other disturbance effecting birds.

	Designation of SPAs or prospective SPAs in plan area would restrict development opportunities.
Implication for SA	Needs to incorporate protection of birds into the SA Framework.

Name	National Planning Policy Framework (2024)
Author	Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government
Source	https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-planning-policy-framework--2

Description	The National Planning Policy Framework provides a framework within which local people and their accountable councils can produce their own distinctive local and neighbourhood plans, which reflect the needs and priorities of their communities. Planning law requires that applications for planning permission must be determined in accordance with the development plan, unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The National Planning Policy Framework must be taken into account in the preparation of local and neighbourhood plans, and is a material consideration in planning decisions. Planning policies and decisions must reflect and where appropriate promote relevant EU obligations and statutory requirements. This Framework does not contain specific policies for nationally significant infrastructure projects for which particular considerations apply. These are determined in accordance with the decision-making framework set out in the Planning Act 2008 and relevant national policy statements for major infrastructure, as well as any other matters that are considered both important and relevant (which may include the National Planning Policy Framework). National policy statements form part of the overall framework of national planning policy, and are a material consideration in decisions on planning applications. The updated Framework published in 2024 introduces significant reforms aimed at accelerating housing delivery, enhancing infrastructure planning, and promoting sustainable development. Key updates include the introduction of the 'grey belt' land to identify lower-quality Green Belt land suitable for development if it avoids urban sprawl, a new standard method for calculating housing need and reinstatement of mandatory housing targets for local authorities. Description	The Greenwood Community Forest is one of twelve Community Forests established in the early 1990s to demonstrate the contribution of environmental improvement to economic and social regeneration. Together, the twelve Community Forests were able to help to improve the health, well being and quality of life of over half of England's population. They aim to work in partnership to enable Nottinghamshire's communities to create, care for and to use woodlands and other high quality accessible green spaces in a sustainable way that benefits the environment, landscape and the local economy. The Strategic Plan provides an environmental framework, which describes the Greenwood area - taking account of landscape characteristics; biodiversity; agriculture; forestry; countryside access, recreation; urbanisation pressures; environmental education; and the arts, culture and tourism. It justifies the rationale for a Community Forest and identifies the strategies and the main players, which will help achieve the Community Forest over a 25 year period.

Name	Greater Nottingham Strategic Plan Water Cycle Study (2024)
Author	Greater Nottingham Planning Partnership: Broxtowe Borough Council, Gedling Borough Council, Nottingham City Council, Rushcliffe Borough Council
Source	https://www.gnplan.org.uk/media/e2medfzq/gnsp-water-cycle-study-april-2024.pdf
Description	The study identifies the capacity of the water environment and infrastructure to accommodate future growth. It confirms that, while water resources in the Greater Nottingham area remain under pressure, the levels of growth proposed in the Strategic Plan (2023–2041) are broadly consistent with previous plans and are not expected to significantly increase demand for water. The study reinforces the need to align local planning policy with Severn Trent Water's Water Resource Management Plans, which focus on reducing leakage, promoting water efficiency, and increasing metering. In relation to wastewater, the study identifies opportunities for improving capacity and managing surface water inflow through a combination of traditional infrastructure and sustainable drainage (SuDS), including blue-green infrastructure solutions. These approaches will help reduce pressure on the network while delivering environmental and amenity benefits. Water quality remains a key issue, with many water bodies in the area failing to meet good ecological or chemical status. The study notes that pollution from multiple sources and changes to natural river systems present challenges to improving water quality. Planning policies should support measures that protect and enhance the water environment, including contributing to the objectives of the Environment Agency's catchment management strategies.
Targets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The provision of SuDS (where feasible)</li> <li>• Protection and enhancement of multi-functional blue-green infrastructure</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• A reduction in water usage which should ease the pressure on demand</li> <li>• Adequate wastewater treatment facilities prior to the occupation of new development</li> <li>• Help meet the challenges of climate change by encouraging new developments to accord with sustainable design principles.</li> </ul>
Implication for GLDP	The Gedling Local Development Plan should take into account the Water Cycle Study.
Implication for SA	The SA Framework needs to include an objective relating to the demand for water and surface water flooding.

To reduce average concentrations of nitrogen dioxide and particulate matter in Nottinghamshire (which will ultimately lead to a reduction in Air Quality Management Areas in Nottinghamshire); and</li> <li>2. To reduce the estimated proportion of disease and deaths attributable to air pollution (encompassing particles, nitrogen dioxide and other air pollutants).</li> </ol>
Targets	Four strategic objectives include:- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Place making and development for good air quality;</li> <li>• Enable to shift to zero and low emission transport to reduce emissions;</li> <li>• Reduce, minimize and prevent emission from industrial, commercial, agricultural and domestic sources and activity; and</li> <li>• Engagement and communication for behaviour change.</li> </ul>

Description	The Strategy focuses on efforts to reduce energy consumption and carbon emissions derived from Gedling's own operations. The vision is 'to take robust action to tackle the threat of climate change, both internally and externally, working in partnership with local organisations and residents to facilitate behavioural change contributing to sustainable communities'. The July 2025 update sets out progress towards the Council's ambition to become carbon neutral by 2030 and provides a detailed Action Plan for 2025-2026. It adopts a two-pronged approach: reducing the Council's own emissions and working with residents, businesses and community groups to cut borough-wide emissions. To deliver the vision, Gedling has identified the following priority areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Built Environment - including retrofitting homes and improving energy efficiency in council buildings</li> <li>Transport - promoting sustainable travel and expanding electric vehicle charging points</li> <li>Energy Generation</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Consumption and Behavioral Change - supporting awareness and community engagement</li> <li>• Waste Reduction and Recycling</li> <li>• Green Infrastructure – Carbon Offsetting, including increased tree planting and habitat enhancement</li> </ul>
Targets	Detailed Action Plan provided at Chapter 4. The Action Plan (2025–2026) sets out specific short-term measures aligned with the Council’s pathway to net zero by 2030.
Implication for GLDP	The Gedling Local Development Plan should support policies that promote energy efficiency, low-carbon transport, sustainable design, and green infrastructure to contribute to the borough’s net zero target
Implication for SA	The SA Framework needs to include objectives and indicators for reducing carbon emissions, enhancing energy efficiency, and increasing climate resilience.
